To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter in regards to my brother Lawrence (Eddie) Nunley. Eddie is hardworking and a devoted family man. He is compassionate, intelligent and is a gifted artist and carpenter.

Eddie played a key roll in making me the man I am today. My brother has been a great example of a Father, Brother and Friend. From as early as I can remember Eddie always took the time to teach and shape me and has always been a positive influence in my life.

I personally do not believe the accusations against my brother and I don't believe he would ever harm a child in any way. I believe he was wrongly convicted and I do not believe he received a fair trial. Having had a close relationship with Eddie 50+ years I have never known him to be inappropriate to women or children. Our Father was a minister and we all grew up in church with good morals and teachings. Eddie has always been a good example of the values we were taught.

I am most grateful to Kent Allison, a close family friend who grew up in the same church my family and I attended and to every person responsible in our pursuit to justice in Eddie's case.

Sincerely,

Mark Nunley
