To whom it may concern

I'm writing in regards to my nephew Lawrence Edward Dunely "I can honestly say he's always been the sweetest most loving person I've ever known" His family was his whole world then one day that world came crashing down. First his mother passed away the whole family was devastated then his wife left him for another man. I'm guessing that was more than he could endure. He made the mistake thinking drugs would ease the pain and he's paying for that mistake please don't make him pay for something he's never even ~~had~~ consider and that's hurting a child that's not who he is.

Sincerely
Mae M Jenkins
