

To whom it may concern,

My name is Jacob Nunley. I am writing in regards to my father, Lawrence Edward Nunley. My dad has always been a hardworking, devoted person. He worked 60+ hours every week to make sure our family had everything they needed and never went without. Despite the long hours he still found time to spend with us.

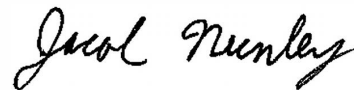

He taught me so many things, many of which I still use to this day. He would share his mechanical and construction knowledge with us and would bring us to work with him and always took his time to teach us new things. He taught me to think critically for myself and to treat everyone with respect and empathy. I'm often asked where I learned to do all the things I know how to do and I'm proud to tell them my father taught me most of it.

He was not only a dad to me but to my friends as well. He cared for and treated them like his own kids. He was known affectionately as 'Papa Eddie'. When we had friends that were in a bad situation he let them stay with us. He took in my girlfriend when she was kicked out of her home and helped us raise our son.

My dad was never inappropriate with me. I personally do not believe the charges against him or that he could ever harm a child. He has always been a protector of me, my family and friends.

He played a critical role in shaping me into the person I am today. I truly believe I wouldn't be half the man I am today if it wasn't for all the things he taught me. He made a huge impact on my life and losing him has left a hole in my heart and family. I may be grown but I still need my dad. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely, Jacob Nunley
